

This Weeks Vegas News Wrap Up – 7/19/2013

One of the most fun restaurants in New York City just opened in Las Vegas. Carmines, which serves only family style meals, opened this week in the Forum Shops at Caesars Palace. The New York and Atlantic City locations only allow parties of 4 or larger so expect the same here. The large parties make dining at Carmines fun but loud. Carmines isn't fine dining but it's quality volume dining at its best. I can't wait to visit!
