

Carmine's Now Open Inside The Forum at Caesars Vegas

By Kelly Dobkin

NYC-based Italian eatery Carmine's has completed its transition to the Las Vegas Strip and is now open inside The Forum Shops at Caesars. Like its NYC counterpart, the Italian eatery serves up epic-sized portions of Italian favorites like eggplant parmesan and chicken contadina in a massive 750-seat eatery. This is the restaurant's sixth location, joining outposts already in DC, the Bahamas and more. You can scope out the menu right here.
